11 Caskets for Kearny's Dead

Write to President Roosevelt

Senator Hiram Johnson
Senate Office Bldg.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Johnson:

In this crucial hour when the President of these United States is surrounded by an atmosphere of war clamor, which, of course, is to his liking, but endangers the very lives of Americans on the seas with aforethought intent of equally endangering the very existence of the nation as an independent republic;—in this crucial hour it is necessary that he be brought face to face with what the people think of him and his actions. He doesn't know. But he must know, so that his decisions for ill or good may be made in full knowledge of the country's attitude.

As you well know, letter writing does not acquaint him with what the pople think of him. He never gets to see the letters. And those who warn him of impending disaster in their letters are being visited by secret service men who threaten and intimidate the writers in the good Gestapo fashion. I have proof of such things, even confirmed by the Secret Service branch of the Treasury Dept.

If it is possible for you, through your connections to bring the enclosed letter addressed to the President, to his personal attention, I wish you would do so. Also please enclose the copy of this for his information.

Very sincerely
C. LEON de ARYAN.

WE ARE SENDING THESE

Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Esq.
The White House,
Washington D. C.

Dear Sir:

I hope you are permitted to read this as an unvarnished example of what millions of Americans think of you and your foreign policy.

When I read the belated account of the 11 dead on the Kearny, involuntarily this thought intruded itself upon my consciousness:

"So he murdered them", meaning you.

I got in my car and drove to the Post Office for my mail. The first acquaintance to speak to me, who noticed, perhaps, my solemn expression and the atmosphere of deep shock reflected in my face and behavior, greeted me with: "So he murdered them after all". To make sure of his meaning I asked: "Of whom are you talking?"

"Roosevelt, of course; now he can be proud, he got his incident after he ordered them to shoot on sight. They got shot first".

I drove downtown and met a businessman to discuss a pending transaction. Before I could open my mouth he said: "Now what do you think of our murderer?"

This is not communicated to you in a spirit of malice. It's done! But killing more people to justify the first act will not destroy the truth.

There is one Judge you cannot escape. The spontaneous reaction of three people within the short period of two hours, unrelated to each other, should tell you plainly what the true sentiment of those Americans is who are not influenced by the expenditures of billions for political and war purposes. Their judgment becomes history.

In these critical hours may I sincerely advise you to turn to Luke 6, 46 and to the end of the chapter.

And in the other very important matter of selling our surplus food stuff to the starving of Europe may you read St. Mathew, 25, 41 and 42.

Would you follow in the path of George Washington and commune with the Divine Mentor, in place of trusting in the brains of biased advisors . . . I certainly do not envy your predicament.

We both have taken an oath of allegiance and I consider it my duty to inform you of the true state of affairs as I encounter them, today.

Sincerely
C. LEON de ARYAN.

Kearny Dead Victims of Roosevelt

To the question whether Thomas shared the attitude expressed by Secretary of the Navy Knox that the 11 dead of the Kearny incident "have given up their lives to the cause of human liberty", Thomas replied that he did not share that view. "They died as a result of the bungling of the Roosevelt administration but not for human liberty", said Norman Thomas.

British Land Grab

Can the wails of the propagandists be taken at face value? They tell us Germany has overrun a large number of countries. A checkup shows that the countries conquered by Germany since September 1, 1939, come to a total of 4,199,368 square miles, with a total pre-war population of 265,374,480 people.

Would it surprise you to know that Great Britain has taken over territory in that same period of 4,965,652 square miles, with a total pre-war population of 116,407,793. Summed up, up, Britain has taken nearly 8,000,000 square miles more of territory than has Germany and Germany has taken territory with 150 million more people than Britain has.

Countries taken by Germany are well known. Those taken by Britain follow: in the Atlantic, the Faroe Islands, Spitzenbergen and Iceland; in Africa, the Belgian Congo, Ruanda and Unadi, Italian Somaliland, Eritrea, Libya, Ethiopia, Cameroons, French Equatorial Africa; in Asia, Iran, Iraq, Syria, Lebanon; in the Pacific, Dutch East Indies, Tahiti, New Caledonia in the Caribbean, Curacao, Aruba and Bonaire; in South America, Dutch Guiana. All right, all right—don't take our word for it. Turn to the 1941 World Almanac and run off the figures on an adding machine.—Roll Call.

WAR REFERENDUM

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

We enclose herewith National Petition and War Referendum, which is self-explanatory. After you have carefully read the measures incorporated, we believe that you will approve of same, and give us your full co-operation in your area.

The task that our Committee has taken upon itself is a large one, and we need all the assistance that we can get from those who see eye to eye with us in battling the world menace. We would appreciate it greately if you could insert the contents of the Petition in The Broom in its entirety, or if that is not possible, give it as much space as you can, we leaving it to your judgment as to the measures that should be brought to the attention of the general public. Our method of procedure is rapidly taking form, and we expect to open up in Southern California very shortly. In the meantime, we would like to have you represent us in the San Diego area.

For your information, the Petitions, when signed, the names from them are indexed and filed under the respective Congressional Districts, the Petitions are then sent to our Headquarters in Washington, D. C., and are then placed by our Washington people in the hands of the Senators and Representatives of their respective districts. You can readily see that this plan of action coming direct from the constituents of the respective Congressmen will have the effect that we seek, or their removal from office will be automatic when they come up for re-election.

We would appreciate any suggestions and criticisms from you.

Sincerely yours,
CITIZENS' NO FOREIGN WAR COALITION, INC.

Thomas Spoke in Russ Auditorium

It is quite remarkable that peace mongers always draw larger crowds than war mongers, not only in San Diego but everywhere in the U. S. When war monger and hatchet man Jerry O'Connell with all paid expenses gave a free address in Balboa Park he attracted only a crowd of about 550 people. But Norman Thomas had an attendance of over 1100 paid admissions, twice as many on a rainy night, besides. Now why is that the case if the people are for the British and the Communists, as the war mongers would want the world to believe?

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. August Einhaus on behalf of the Socialist group of San Diego. Harry Perl lead the singing of THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER, accompanied by Mrs. James Keats on the piano. He also lead in the pledge to the flag. Miss Helen Reinheimer, accompanied by Mrs. Guy West, sang A MADRIGAL, by Victor Harris, encored with FOR THE SPRINGTIME by Lins Seiler. She also sang after the main address, AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL. The audience was surprised at the clear and pure voice of this lyric soprano and her perfect rendition.

The main topic of Thomas' address was that war is not inevitable, that we should do everything possible to stop it; that we should write to the president, senators and congressmen, because they now are saying that the people favor war because protest mail is falling off. If the purpose of the war is the elimination of Hitler, as a person, it should not be necessary to kill millions of people, it could much cheaper be done by having him assassinated, even though Thomas does not advocate this. But entering the war would destroy America because it would take years and billions and millions of lives to subdue Europe if it ever could be accomplished. They could never conquer us.

Socialism vs. Individualism

Mr. Norman Thomas
303 Fourth Ave., New York City.

My dear Mr. Thomas:

During the short period of our acquaintance in San Diego you let fall several remarks which reveal to me the menace of socialistic doctrine to our American ideals of life, especially because you, an ex-minister, are combining the sweet, tolerant and versatile technique of oratory in favor of peace and plenty as against the brutalitarian tactics of Russian and German, national and international socialism. When a wrong trend of thought is presented in such honeyed fashion, as you are doing it with sincerity, the menace to our country increases accordingly, because so few are able to distinguish the death needle hidden beneath this sweet approach.

During the interview over KGB on Wednesday I asked you whether the American approach to peace and prosperity on the basis of the combined democratic-individualistic principles was not superior and preferable to the democratic-socialistic basis, especially since Henry George has pointed out the solution to social economics. Your reply was that single-tax solves only part of the problem, it being a tax on unearned increment in land, but would not tax the unearned increment in industrial stock ownership.

The moderator did not permit me to come back at you and show up the inadequacy of your reply, since we were merely to prompt you by asking questions in rotation, there being five interviewers.

In your address from the rostrum of the Russ auditorium that night you also mentioned the fact that the Republican and Democratic parties have purloined the socialistic measures advocated by your party; which is true in a large measure to the destruction of the American way of life, so that step by step this nation is skidding down the road to communism.

I am hereby challenging you to a public debate at any place and time convenient to you, paying my share of the expense, to discuss this elemental subject of Socialism vs. Individualism as the future destiny of America. You maintain that we can solve the world's problems only by adopting Socialism, I maintain that it will aggravate the evil from which the world is suffering and that salvation lies in individual unfoldment, not in collective planning.

Hoping you are not as aloof as Windy Willkie in matters of public debates,

I am most sincerely,
C. LEON de ARYAN.

WHY DOES AMERICA FIRST TAKE NO ACTION ?

Here is an excerpt from an air mail letter to General Wood written Oct. 11. Below you will find an International News Report, dated Oct. 23; the first step taken by Gen. Wood to get some action according to constitutional law.

October 11, 1941.

General Robert E. Wood,
c/o Sears Roebuck & Co.
Chicago, Illinois.

My dear General Wood:

I read where on August 18, you have made the following statement:

"Secret agreements made by the President have no place under our Constitution and democratic system. If he has sought per--sonally to commit this nation to war he should advise the American people so that such purported treaty may be considered—and repudiated—by the Senate, in accordance with the Constitution . . Now dispatches from London tell us that the English people see in the joint declaration assurances on the part of President Roosevelt that America will soon follow up the proposed peace points by active participation in the war. For instance, the London Dispatch on August 17 stated editorially: 'Army, navy and air force experts of both nations did not attend the Atlantic conference to formuate peace aims, but to discuss how victory can be achieved. . . . "

Would you kindly explain to me why, in the face of the above statement on August 18, you have not come out with a request to the Senate that it investigate President Roosveelt's alleged violation of the Constitution in making a treaty with Churchill in favor of the British government?

Is it not the duty of the Senate to not only exercise its duties of treaty making, but also to protect the Constitution against violation of the treaty making powers of the Senate?

And have you, as well as myself, not taken the selfsame oath of upholding the Constitution and giving our lives, our substance and pledging our sacred honor to its protection? Why, then, have you merely registered the fact of the violation but not called upon the Senate to do its duty, its sworn duty, to uphold its treaty making prerogatives?

The Senate has not only the duty, it has the power to investigate this alleged treaty and its consequences.

It is most remarkable that not only yourself, but that Senator Taft, for example, and Congressman, Fish, will publicly point to the violation of the Constitution by the President, but none of them takes the legal steps to call a halt and to call the President to account, as provided in the Constitution.

A wave of defeatism pervades the nation because those who act as leaders of the opposition to American participation in actual warfare have not the courage of their convictions to the point where they would follow the Constitution and not merely prate about it. Why is it that Senator Wheeler, Nye and others, as well as Charles Lindbergh, will tour the country from one end to the other, but none of them call for impeachment, the only legal means by which a faithless public official can be called to account under that same Constitution, they all so piously cry, has been violated!?

When the President and the war mongers proceed ruthlessly, with cunning and malicious forethought to utilize every weakness of the national mind to hypnotize it into a state of defeatism, only courageous enforcement of the Constitution against this usurpation of powers to the detriment of the nation, can restore a lawful government.

Are you going to wait till by usurpation this nation is bleeding upon the battlefields of Asia, Africa and Europe, before you will uphold your oath of allegiance to the Constitution?

Does America First mean just speechifying but no action, while the President is engulfed in one action after another to wrest illegal consent from a paralyzed nation to pledge US to commit suicide for the profit of the vultures who are already devouring chunks of living flesh of "Uncle Sam" by destroying our business and foreclosing our farms on what is called "defense priority".

Shame on you, General Wood and Charles Lindbergh and Robert Taft, Wheeler and Nye that in the hour when action is needed to uphold the Constitution by constitutional means, all you can think of to do is to speechify while the usurper rides into dictatorial power, wasting our wealth and bonding our great grand children to the vultures for whose profit the world wars have been engineered and continously waged as ordered.

Sincerely yours,
C. LEON de ARYAN.

Your letter of October 11th to General Wood has been referred to me.

I hope we will continue to have your support.

CONGRESS VOTE ON DECLARING OF WAR URGED

CHICAGO,—Oct. 23, Gen. R. E. Wood, acting national chairman of the America First Committee, today called upon President Roosevelt in an open letter to submit a declaration of war for consideration by congress.

Although the America First committee will oppose any such resolution "with all the resources at our command", Wood stated, "we believe that the introduction of a declaration of war for consideration by congress is the only honorable path for the president to take."

Wood's letter declared that amendments introduced into the senate for repeal of the provision which keeps our ships out of the war zones mark "culmination of the studied program to put us into the war by the back door—to involve us without stating the issue in an honest,, straightforward way." The letter added:

"The time has come for our government to abandon the technique of subterfuge and to present honestly to congress the only real issue which America must decide —peace or war."

THE PEACE (OF VENGEANCE) PROCLAIMED

By Two Despots (At Sea)

Two tyrants met, forgetful of their past,
To stamp perfection on the world at last,
They never had, since their careers began,
One pure pulsation for the rights of man.

Hitler's armies they would annihilate,
While Stalin's massacres they consecrate,
And then create one grand ideal State.

Their pure angelic love, all unconfined,
Embraced the universe and all mankind.
They never think of greed or hate, or pelf,
Their creed, "Love God, Thy Neighbor as Thy Self,"

For ages long, this has been England's plan,
A blood-stained Empire, ever in the van
Of crimes against every law of God and man,
For she has robbed, since robbing first began.

Her heart beats only for the common weal,
From other nations she would never steal.

A peace of vengeance is their wicked aim.
Inhuman as the source from which it came,
A peace of Justice comes from God above.
Their peace is based on hatred, not on love,
A peace of Vengeance is, we know full well,
An Emanation from the 'Gates of Hell'.

"Discipline at the Blind Shop

If you would ask Hitler, Stalin or Roosevelt, why they have driven and forced their people to murder each other, you would get the same answer Moses gave when he murdered 3000 Jews for having disobeyed his divine orders and worshipped an idol. Every dictator considers himself a lover of his people who knows best what is good for them, for they have not enough sense to decide for themselves. And we agree, he must be right to the extent that they do not have sense to run their own business.

But the methods used by dictators belie the paternalistic "good" done by them. And here is where we come to the Blind Shop in San Diego managed by Emmet Copeland, who also believes that the blind must be handled with a firm hand because, fundamentally they are sick people and don't always know as well what is right and good as he, with his eyesight can SEE for them.

This is the sum and substance of his attitude.

As promised to our readers two weeks ago, we called at the Blind Shop to find out what's wrong. Copeland was quite friendly, informative and outspoken. He does not mince words and neither do we. For this reason we believe that it was quite out of place for Copeland to refer to the wife of one of the workers—a horse's hind-end. The worker may be a little blind and might not know what's "good for him" and Copeland may be imbued with a superior eyesight, but still he might not like the idea of taking such abuse of his wife, as he reports that Copeland remarked about her. And the type of language Copeland used in his interview with us, his attitude and intent, merely confirms that Copeland would use such language about a blind man's wife.

It is quite possible that "discipline" is needed in the Blind Shop. But when such discipline extends to penalizing a man because his wife is suspected of having told "outsiders" that not everything in the Blind Shop is rosy and an investigation would be in order, then we have tyranny.

Copeland, after all is a public servant, and like all servants should be kept in his place, too. When blind people do not like his management they are entitled under our constitution to protest and the press is the proper place to bring their grievances. Were it not for a courageous free press the Copelands would long since have had this country a burocratic dictatorship, like Russia.

KNOX THEN, AND NOW

In 1936, Colonel Frank Knox, now Secretary of the Navy, said, "Mr. Roosevelt is a strange figure in the American scene. He has squandered the savings and future earnings of not merely a part of our people, but all our people. He has broken every pledge he has ever made to our people."

Should Boarding Houses Close ?

Editor The Broom,

How can the Council of San Diego close the boarding houses of San Diego? The Constitution of the United States does not authorize the Council or empower it to do that much, to the contrary, it states that the people's personal or property rights shall not be violated, and I'm very sure our greatest and dearest rights lie within our homes. I am also sure we do not elect men to office to tear down our Constitution and to deprive us of our home liberties.

If men, after we elect them to office, do not live up to the supreme law of the land, they should be recalled as, unfit to officiate under the Constitution. Shall we be put to the painful necessity of rising in a body in defense of our personal and property rights, here in our own country?

E. C. LESPERENCE.

Cat Out of Bag

WASHINGTON,— Senator Wheeler is inwardly fuming over the manner in which he became involved in the Jewish issue. He thinks he was trapped. The snare was laid in his opinion by the visiting member of parliament, Beverly Baxter.

Baxter called him one night at 10 o'clock and wanted to see him. Wheeler suggested lunch the next day, but Baxter insisted on coming out at once, and brought his wife. The discussion was casually social, and Wheeler insists he should be recalled, as unfit to of-personal scorn for the anti-Semitic issue.

What knocked him over was Baxter's statement, published afterwards in the press: "Wheeler has some strange idea that England is fighting a Jewish war."

Just to even matters up a little, Wheeler is now quoting Baxter as having said that Britain is counting on 3,000,000 men from the United States to fight with 3,000,-000 Britishers to wind up the war. —Paul Mallon.

Origin of 'Peace Monger'

Dear Mr. Editor:

I'm glad you think the word "peace-mongers" is "a funny little group", but please don't give the British Minister of Information credit, or blame, for inventing it. Such words usually spring up in several places at once. I happen to know this one sprang into being several months before the British Minister got hold of it, because one or two of us America First members used it—and thought we had invented it then —in a telegram against the Lend-Lease Bill sent to Harry Hopkins for President Roosevelt just before that famous broadcast of his, shortly before or immediately after the Lend-Lease Bill passed. We used the expression "We peacemongers" in the spirit of meeting the President half-way and cracking a joke at our own expense. I'm glad the leading senators opposing war measures have claimed the epithet in the same joking spirit and hope others America Firsters will not take offense at it.

Cordially,
MARGARET E. LAWRANCE.

BUTCHERS AND INTERESTED PUBLIC

The Racketeers in the Butcher's Union admit the money is all gone and that they are over $4000.00 in the red. Who got the cash?

Wonder how the boys like the new assessment?

By the time the men deduct the $100.00 they paid the racketeers to get their jobs plus the assessments, dues and fines it makes them the poorest paid butchers in town. The boys in the American Type Union have no deductions to make and as a result their pay checks are all theirs.

Since the last bulletin, The American Market at 620 - 12th street has quit the reds and the public may now buy meat from them after 6 p. m. and on Sundays and holidays.

The Committee wishes to thank the public and the butchers for the many compliments they have received on the last bulletin issued.

You will hear from us again.

'NAZI TERROR REIGN'

WASHINGTON,—Secy. of State Hull labeled the torpedoing of the American freighter Lehigh off Africa as an act "in harmony with all the definitions of piracy and assassination".

This sinkng of a vessel flying the American flag, and traveling without cargo between Bilbao, Spain, and the African gold coast, was a perfect example, Hull told his press conference, of the "Nazi policy of attempting to create a reign of terror on the high seas."

Ship Attacked By Unseen Sub

Given No Warning Captain Declares

FREETOWN, West Africa,—The captain of the United States merchantship Lehigh, sunk by a submarine off the coast of Africa last Sunday, today told the United Press that his ship was attacked without warning.

"Nothing was seen of the submarine either before or after the ship was hit," he said.

"The main topmast came down with the explosion, acrrying the main radio antenna away. The radioman attempted to send an S O S on the short-wave antenna, but I am certain the call was not transmitted," he added.

Editor's Note:—Since the captain of the Lehigh attests that no submarine was visible, what proof is there? The explosion could have been caused by a bomb placed by some secret agent on the boat and timed to explode accordingly.

Archbishop's Prayers Unavailing

All events of the last few days would seem to make it obvious that the Archbishop of Canterbury's prayers to save the godless Stalin regime were not heard by God. The Archbishop of Canterbury had found the desire of Edward VIII, King of England and Emperor of India, to marry a divorced American woman was such a mortal sin that God, he, and the state church of England could not pardon, and aided in forcing Edward from the throne.

The archbishop found it "within his conception of true religion to forgive and forget the past" of Bolshevik deeds, including the murder of the entire imperial family—czar, czarina, czarevich and four daughters.

FOOD REFORM

"As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he; as a man eateth, so he thinks."

A REMINDER

There are a few points I would like to touch on. Instead of taking and filling ourselves with medicine from a chemist, we compound and medicate our own food, viz.: we prepare our food in such a way that our digestive organs are our laboratory, and turn the food into medicine; or to put it in another way, that we are our own laboratory and extract such elements out of the food, which serve our body as medicine, while the rest continues to serve as food. All our organs play their part so our laboratories are living entities.

Our stomach is divided into two compartments. The food enters into one end. Now when we are eating when our jaws are working the little feelers report this to the stomach, so the stomach makes itself ready to receive the food, which is immediately separated by the little guardians into salty or mineral and acidulous substances. When we eat too hastily, too carelessly, also mixing too many different uncongenial kinds of food at the same meal, the stomach is no longer able to separate the food properly, and it falls to the bottom or end, and gives us dispepsia, or it is thrown up to side wall and causes indigestion. Therefore, we should eat carefully, slowly, and not many kinds of food at the same meal, and only those which are congenial to each other. The stomach expects us, as the collective intelligence, to know how to behave as in case of fire in theatre all would be able to get out, if instead of confusedly running to the door they would line up; all would be saved. So with the stomach when it is crowded up and it cannot separate any more the acids to one side and salts to the bottom, and also it is unable to perform the winding, circling movement necessary for digestion, but only rubs, and the food does not get any more proper heat, or is overheated. There is no proper digestion when the food is not hot enough, the blood cannot take it up; when it is too hot alcohol is produced, disintegration sets in and the blood cannot take that either. So food all turns to waste, and we are always hungry, but never fed.

URIC ACID

As a Factor in the Causation of Disease

By KATHERINE LARSON

There is one further fact that we must bear in mind with regard to uric acid, and that is its power of producing local irritation in the tissues. Several experimenters have injected uric acid either in suspension or in solution both into their own tissues and those of animals and they have all shown that such uric acid produces irritation of the tissues at the seat of injection. They have also shown that this irritation is increased by the administration of solvents and diminished by the administration of precipitants from which can be drawn the conclusion that it is with uric acid in solution that we have to deal in the temporary irritation which we may have in the joints and fibrous tissues. On the other hand every pathologist knows that he often meets with solid deposits of the biurate of soda lying perfectly quiet and harmless in the tissues and not surrounded by the smallest evidence of recent irritation.

From the above mentioned facts it follows that when there is irritation and inflamation, it is due to uric acid in tissues. Modern medicine is loking for germs as the cause of this irritation and has based so many false theories of infection on this same erroneous assumption, that it has led the medical men into blind alleys and to methods of treating of so-called "diseases" which methods do not work when they are put into practice. The proof of the pudding is in the eating—if fighting infection by serums and anti-toxins does not bring health to people, there must be something wrong with these theories of disease. Besides if it is true, that once you have had an infectious disease, like typhoid fever, smallpox or diphteria, it makes you immune to those diseases, it is unnecessary and absurd to try to avoid these diseases by anti-toxins. There is something wrong with this sort of reasoning: in order to keep well and avoid getting infection, you have to be first made artificially sick by the very same poisonous serum which causes the infection. That this kind of reasoning is responsible for untold suffering and misery can be proved by a visit to our hospitals which are crowded with people who are "fighting" disease by poisoning their system with products of diseased animals and human beings. But the truth is that life can not be saved by sacrificing another being's life—life and health can be preserved by obeying the Laws of Nature. Uric acid is responsible for most of the ills in the human body. It is the most important factor in the causation of disease, so-called. By eliminating it from our system and keeping it out of our body will insure good health. Everyone who tries it for a necessary length of time, and whose body has enough vitality to accomplish the cure, will get results.

ANTI-FATIGUE DRUG TESTED AT CALTECH

Tests of a drug which may play a vital part in overcoming fatigue in troops on arduous war duties are being made at the California Institute of Technology, it was learned.

The drug is amphetamine sulfate, also known as benzedrine, and is being tested by Dr. Gordon Albert Alles, its discoverer, and his associates, who are using their own nervous systems as "guinea pigs".

Students to date indicate, it was said, that the drug properly administered will bring fatigued persons out of "moody" and nervous depressions quickly. Over a long period of time, efforts will be made to determine the after effects, if any result.

Dr. Alles' experiments are supplemental to others being made with the drug and other drugs as possible "war medicines" by Dr. Ernest Simonson and asociates at Milwaukee, Wis.

Dr. Simonson's tests already have shown benzedrine has a distinct value as a reviver of truck drivers fatigued from long trips, according to reports to the medical profession.

"WAR-MEDICINES" ARE POISONOUS

I am told there are on the market cigarets containing this substance or one of the same order, but the heart goes bad soon after using them. Two times in one day drivers of autos were so doped with cigarets that they nearly smasht into my car. They did not seem to see correctly and acted as cigaret fiends usually act.

democracy

By Charles H. Ingersoll

(Of Dollar Watch Fame)

NEW YORK.—James A Farley, addressing 12,000 Macy employees —in the great charity fund drive, of which their share alone is $5,000,000—says that 'our democratic way of life' is to help our less fortunate brothers! He means what Eleanor Roosevelt feelingly calls the 'under-privileged'.

I'd rather hear these democrats quote Jefferson on democracy, than to give it a WPA, New Deal Communistic definition.

Jefferson's notion of 'our way' was to make it as simple and frugal as possible, instead of tangled and extravagant. His way would be to give to everyone his full earnings, so that none would have to be begged, borrowed, or stolen. Under-privilege comes from over-privilege.

Troubles in the New Deal camp are undoubtedly multiplying, so that dangers of a fourth term are limited to starting another three-term 12 year series, with a hand-picked candidate, probably Wallace.

While war hysteria has given us the third term, translation of this into the action of preparation, and spending 10 to 25 billions, is quite another matter, which will make many a cleavage quite new to New Dealism.

Edward P. E. Troy—contributing to the San Diego 'Broom' on 'Churchill-Stalin Democracy'— is a name that I have known for at least a quarter-century. What happens to names like this? Mr. Troy has been prominent in the several 'adventures' of Georgean economics in California, but in between—well, where?

This is a fine story about this new kind of democracy, and I am much interested in all varieties thereof.

Troy can beat this writer stating this case: Why. Can't we have these wonderful statements every week in the 'Broom' and larger papers? He gives most attention to the English kind of 'great democracy' as so unctuously referred to by such spell-binders as Dorothy Thompson, Benjamin Cohen, and Ambassador Winant. Stalin democracy is still accepted only by regular Communists. Budding ones—New Dealers and Progressives—don't quite understand the identity of the Marx dictatorship with what we used to call Jefferson individualism.

Troy packs so much into his narrative of John Bull's democratic achievements, that he cannot be chided for missing one or two, such as (1) recent abolishment of free trade, the only thing that made their imperialism tolerable. This alone should be sufficient cause for these two world wars. (2) He could have more closely connected the 90% Lord's land monopoly, with the potential extinction (starvation) of 47,000,000 people with their lifeliness practically cut by U boats. Indeed, Eden is just now saying England's food supply is in vital danger. (3) He could have quoted Lloyd George's historic statement that 'these Lords make the English people trespassors on their own soil.' What is the English definition of treason? (4) He could have made as effective a quotation from Winston Churchill's great speech against land monopoly, of July 1909.

However, without these additions, this Troy document should be put on Senator Wheeler's free postage (but not free printing) million-shot mailing assembly line.

S. D. NEWSPAPER GUILD voted communist according to S. Burton Heath, writing from New York in the National Whirligig on Oct. 22, appearing in the Trib. Speaking of the overwhelming repudiation of the pro-Stalinist national leadership within the Guild, Heath reports that at the national referendum "New York, Houston, St. Louis, Cincinnati, San Diego, Denver, Indianapolis, Columbus, Milwaukee and the Tri-Cities—Albany, Troy and vicinity—upheld the radical incumbent slate." Nevertheless the anti-Communists received 12 of the 13 places on the international executive board at the referendum, Toronto alone remaining communist. Which means the U. S. repudiated communism, Canada retains the communist representation.

He came down the garden path, a sad, sorrowful figure. She watched him with anxious eyes.

"How did father take it?" she asked.

"He took it all right," replied the young man.

"Oh, I'm so glad, George!" she cried.

"Are you?" he replied, flopping forlornly at her side. "Well, I can't say that I am, dear. At first your father wouldn't listen to me."

"Why didn't you tell him that you had $2,500 in the bank, as I told you to?" she exclaimed.

"I did, after all else had failed," answered George, dejectedly.

"And what did he do then?"

"Do!" echoed the young man, passing his hand wearily through his hair. "He borrowed it."

Thomas Challenged to Debate

Norman Thomas during his short visit in San Diego last Wednesday pointed out that he could not induce Windy Willkie to debate with him. Now the question arises:— will Thomas debate the issue of "democratic-socialism" vs. "democratic-individualism" with the editor of THE BROOM? The challenge developed from the radio interview that took place over KGB on Wednesday, 1:45 to 2:30, as previously announced in THE BROOM, under the auspices of the San Diego Radio Forum.

Participating in the interview as questioners were Mrs. Edith Orcutt, Paul Richie, Dr. Ebon McGregor, C. Leon de Aryan and George Baird, with Lester Penry the moderator of the Forum. Each questioner had two questions which were answered by Thomas in his usual informative way, shedding much light on what he thought about it. During the interview Mrs. Orcutt posed this question:

"Mr. Thomas, since you are afraid of a superstate of the English speaking nations to maintain peace and order upon the globe, or a League of Nations controlled by the English speaking people, what alternative would you suggest?" To which Thomas replied in substance:

"A super-state by the English speaking people smacks too much of a self-annointed dominance over other peoples who, according to the Churchill-Roosevelt 8 points, would disarm all their opponents and keep them in subjection by armed might. Such a condition would develop into a super-dictatorship as if God spoke English and all others had to accept the English distatorship. The alternative would be a federation of states, or independent nations, who within themselves accepted the democratic-socialistic principle as the basis of government . . . . " Here de Aryan asked:

"Why the democratic-socialistic principle instead of the democratic-individualistic principle which is the American principle of individual enterprise with democratic respect for the rights of others. Under the Henry George doctrine of payment for public service to the state only and not to private landholders, it would not be necessary to regiment and collectivise industry, individuals would not be herded like cattle, told what they must do and how much they would be doled out in return." And Thomas imagined that his reply was smart in saying:

"I thought I knew a singletaxer when I met one, so you are advancing the singletax theory of expropriating landvalue to pay for government costs. In some instances I would agree with that procedure, but a tax on land only would not solve the economic snarl because there is unearned increment in industrial stocks and dividends which would not be touched by the singletax on land . . . . . " de Aryan attempted to point out to Thomas that he was not up-to-date on social economics, since the singletax has long since been discarded by the students of Henry George who caught onto the principle of not paying for government services, or any other public produced services to private individuals, in the form of rents or capitalized sales prices of land. These students propose to pay no tax whatever, even to the government. But the moderator stopped de Aryan from a comeback and proceeded to give Paul Richie the floor, following the pre-arranged agreement of rotation of questions with no debate.

Dare Thomas Debate de Aryan?

Of course, when de Aryan questions whether Thomas dares accept a public debate with the editor of THE BROOM on Socialism vs. Individualism, he does not imply that Thomas would not put up a brilliant discourse, what he means is, does Thomas realize that he met his match in this obscure editor when a discussion of government and social economics is concerned? It is about high time to disabuse the minds of the masses of people that Socialism, or collectivism with its "planned and regimented" economics, holds any hope of peace or liberty for WHITE PEOPLE. Socialism is the doctrine which will produce marvels in China, Japan and any nation of colored blood with their "divine rulers", but the white man aspires to be a sovereign in his own right and democratically respect the sovereign rights of his fellows, he never accepts dictation by any planner, save God.

It would be a pleasure to debate this issue with Thomas, because he is quite an intelligent person, except where he is handicapped by his collectivist limitations. In divine intelligence it has been planned and outlined to give each individual complete latitude of action with the option of voluntary organization into private corporations or partnerships without dictation from the state.

The Royal House and the Invisible World Empire

By Hubert H. Heath

HOT SPRINGS, N. M.,—Raymond Clapper, who recently returned from London, tells us that Royalty is there sitting tighter than ever before. When any "Union Now" traitor approaches you with his insidious plea, his treason by subterfuge, just remind him of this fact.

The royal house, our people should remember, is NOT English. It is a race of royal mongrels in whom flow all the principal bloodlines of the continent.

War has enabled them to solidify their dominant position and this has always been a primary purpose in wars—to keep peoples in subjection to their rulers.

In the past 150 years the royal houses of Europe & to some extent Asia, have been pretty completely merged thru intermarriage. While one is confronted with a certainty of being charged with being anti-semite if found discussing the Invisible world empire there are never-the-less, millions who are wakening.

To be anti-semite is to be much more than anti-Jew as the Semites constitute a large percentage of mankind. However the writer is distinctly NOT anti-Jew.

The Jewish common people, whom Jesus loved, and who were very many of them beautiful characters, have doubtless very many descendants who are just as fine.

However, the rulers of the Jews of that day were a vicious, wicked lot and the heads of the Invisible World Empire of today are the logical successors to them. They are utterly ruthless and vicious. They have again plunged the world into a war that is intended to accomplish what the last world failed to do—destroy all Gentile and Christian governments from earth and complete their conquest of man.

WILD DELUSIONS OF A MEGALOMANIAC

"A megalomaniac", am I?
"Sans common sense, or human reason,"—
This is a base, malignant lie
That I shall punish as high treason.

There's naught that can disturb relations
As little minds in lofty stations,
Who, by their mental aberrations
Presume, the dolts, to govern nations.

The greatest men, 'tis truly said,
Were not deemed great till they were dead,
But Fame's bright rays already shed
Immortal glory 'round my head.

Tho' as a peacock I am vain,
O'er this great land I rule and reign,
I treat all classes (save Jews & Com') with disdain,
For Nero lives in me again.

One thirty million slaves, supine,
Are but unconscious tools of mine,
I'll shed their blood, and make a shrine
Of boys who die on Rhone or Rhine.
On every sea I'll build my bases,
Where'er I find strategic places.
Until ther's left no empty spaces
For Latin or Germanic races.

I'll build a base at the North Pole,
And write my name on Glory's scroll,
This Universe I will control,—
For that is my predestined goal.

Impatiently the sad-faced diner waited for the restaurant orchestra to finish the jazz tune they were playing—then he quickly beckoned the conductor to his table.

"Do you play anything by request?" asked the diner.

"Why, of course, sir!" cried the delighted band conductor.

"Well, just take your band outside and let them play dominoes while I finish my meal!" said the diner.
